Basic Participation Rules

Number 1 Rule: HAVE FUN

Signed Waiver: A Waiver must be signed for each player. If under 18 years old, it must be signed by a parent or guardian. In cases of group rentals, such as parties and team bonding, the renter can sign for all participants.

No blindsided hits or unnecessary rough play, such as If a player is facing in the opposite direction it is ok to give them a nudge. Also no full speed bumps to a player that is looking or not looking. Attempting to blindside and injure another player will stop play, and you will be taken out and not allowed to play again. Over aggressive rough play can also stop play and result in dismissal of playing.

All play stops: immediately when the coordinator blows the whistle or indicates to stop in some manner.

You must remain: in the Bubble when in the field of any game play. Only those in a bubble can be on the field of play except for any coordinator such as referees.

Bubble Suit Attire

Please remove all necklaces, watches, rings, earrings, and other items that could puncture the bubble or harm you before entering the bubble. Cell phones and other items with your pockets or person can easily fall out.

Wear loose and comfortable sports clothing, preferably no zippers. Knee pads and ankle braces are acceptable to wear during play.

No cleats of any kind. Appropriate closed footwear, tennis shoes are recommended..

No hair barrettes, bobby pins, or sharp belts.

No sunglasses or eyeglasses unless worn with sports goggles. Those needing their eyeglasses are warned that they could fall off during play.
